PHOENIX, ARIZONA, AUG. 22, 1909.

The Association of American Advertisers (New York City) has examined and certified to the circulation of this publication. Only the figures of circulation contained in its report are guaranteed by the Association.

The Republican is the only newspaper in Arizona holding two certificates of circulation from the above Association, one for the Phoenix and one for the Tucson. The average circulation, per day, thus certified to is:
From Oct. 1, 1906, to March 31, 1907.....8,226
From Jan. 1, 1908, to March 31, 1909.....8,634
These figures represent a larger circulation than that of all other Phoenix dailies combined, and is the largest in Arizona by more than 2000. The Republican is the only Arizona newspaper that makes public its circulation as certified to by the Association of American Advertisers, which is the only recognized authority in the United States.

THE POLE STILL STANDS.
Walter Wellman did not succeed yesterday in pulling the north pole up by the roots. He will have to be more persevering if he brings it back with him for transplantation in the United States to the end that the sizzling summers in the eastern and middle states may be moderated.

We know of no one in this country who was waiting with bated breath for Mr. Wellman to capture the pole.
There were perhaps not a great many of Mr. Wellman's fellow citizens who expected him to crown the work of two centuries of exploration by being first at the pole.

There were not a great many Americans who felt that Mr. Wellman had any serious intention of attempting to reach the pole, or that he would sail in his balloon very far into the silent north to encounter the strange things, which for all that the explorers know lurk there.

That the pole may be reached by balloon, dirigible or drifting is quite probable, and it is equally probable that one man has sailed to it or over it, but his bones lie somewhere in that region penetrated only by him—the ill-fated Andre.

But Andre was an explorer and something of a scientist, while Mr.
Wellman is neither. Nor is he even a reliable authority in his long tilled field of endeavor—Journalism.

His first attempt on the pole was a bit of advertising. His second is probably a reinvention of the advertisement which he found not altogether unprofitable.

This is not saying that Wellman will not ultimately capture the pole, but our money, at present, is on the pole.

The position of the superintendent of the Asylum at Matteawan in the matter of his treatment of Harry Thaw and his visitors is unassailable. Whether or not Thaw is actually insane and no doubt there are thousands outside of Matteawan of more infirm mentality, to the superintendent he is insane and should be subjected to such rules as govern the institution. His mother cannot regard his insanity as a fiction and insist that the rules should be set aside for that reason.

So, a newspaper man wants to build an aerial battleship for the United States navy. We can think of no one who could build a better one —on paper—than the average American newspaper man.

Mr. Harriman may be a very sick man, but none of his financial enemies will take liberties with the Harriman properties until they have had a personal view of his physician's death certificate.

Those people who were marooned near India last week are doubtless of the opinion that the Great American desert was a figment of the brain of the earlier American geographers.

It will not be long until we hear about the backbone of the summer being broken, but most of us will insist upon at least a glance at the fractured vertebrae.

RIFFS ORDERED TO QUIT FIGHTING.

Tangier, Aug. 21.—The sultan of Morocco has sent a written communication to the Riffs who are opposing the Spanish at Melilla, ordering them to suspend the struggle until the ar-

LITTLE JAMES

(Concerning the Mexican Campaign for the Presidency.)

"In some Respects" sez my Paw,
"I like th' Mexican way of Conductin' a Presendishle Campagne better'n I do ourn. They aint so much Noise an' Red Fire an' Malinla of th' opposide Candidates. When th' Aunt Administrashun Fackshun gits too loud Presend Dize he sez 'This here noise 'at I heer sounds like Treason to me' an he sends out th' Army to see if it cant' Indoos th' Oppysishun to be more Respekful to th' Guverment."
"Toll 'em' sez Presend Dize 'at "They's a Campagne goin' on down it jist wunst more becous its the Unanmous wish of all th' Mexicons 'at's ever spoke to him about it an' he ast Vice Presend Corrie to run with him for he sez its a pity to split up th' Ole Ticket."

"Guvner Raise he sez 'at he's gittin' tired of his job of Guvner an' 'at he gesses he's Good Vice Presendishle Lumber hisself. Sez he, 'I aint got nothin' agin Dize, but I think like Doctor Hostler, 'at when a man's got to be 60 years of age he ort to be Cloriformed. But I aint after his offis Directly less a majority of th' People wants me, an' Ium what I can Lern I gess they do."

"Guvner Raise he's traveled in th' United Staits an' he sez 'at he's agin' to Interdoos Modern Amurri-can methods into th' Campagne. He goes about th' state of Noovy Leone for Raise an' Reform."

"When Presend Dize heers of th' Racket he sez to Mister Corrie, sez he, 'What's all this here Toomult 'at's goin' on up at Noovy Leone.' Mister Corrie he sez 'It sounds like we got Willyum J. O'Brien in our Mist, which is a Chammerin' for Reform-Presend Dize he sez 'I'll haf to send a Brigade up to Reconnoiter around some. I'm in favor of Reform myself, but it wont never do to have Reformers a workin' agin each other.
They orten to be more'n wun Reformer in th' Country at Wunst."

"He tells th' Generle of th' Brigade to see Guvner Raise an' tell him 'at this here Campagne 's got to be Conducted more orderly. Sez he, 'Tell him 'at he's Splittin' th' Mexican Party all up into Fackshuns an' 'at he's a yung man yit an' kin Afoard to Waite. I aint agoin' to be Presend more'n three or four Deckades more at th' outside, but let him know 'at we got to have, Peece an' Harmony in my Declinin' Years."

"Th' Generle went an' in a few Days Presend Dize got a Tellygraft fom him which sez: 'Didn't git to see Raise. He left before I got here.
He's sed to be Canvassin' th' Mountain Precincts where they aint no Voters. I Asoomed th' Responsibility of sendin' word to him 'at I thought 'at his Present Plan of Campagne, a hidin' in Caves up in th' Mountains would Reseeve Guverment Approve an' 'at you wuddent Keer if he didn't come down till after th' Eleckshun."
"Presend Dize he tellygrafts back to th' Generle an' sez 'You didn't Exceed your Othority none an' you acked 'Wise an' Diskreet. Keep Raise a littin' th' High Places for a few weeks more an' don't interfere none with his Campagne 'less he lights somehow. We cant afford to Subjick ourself to th' charge of usin' Endoo Infloonce to secour my Eleckshun to th' Presidency. I'd Ruther Lose Out."
